Allegany County Department of Public Works Tire Disposal Program

1. Shut off the flow of tires into the transfer stations and landfill by a specified date. The time period between the announcement of the Counties impending tipping fee program and the cut-off date for free disposal should be as short as possible. We recommend five (5) days with extensive media coverage and also personal contact with the larger generators of tire waste.
2. We recommend using the landfill as the primary collection point. Tires will be brought into the landfill strictly by commercial establishments such as junk yards, auto repair shops, and tire re-cappers.

Tires will be removed from the landfill either by Oxford Tire or by the use of our equipment. Tires will be transported to Oxford Tire in Buffalo, at a specified price per ton. The price charged by the County for tire disposal is intended to cover our costs to Oxford Tire.

3. Residents with small quantities of waste tires will be able to dispose of them at schedule times at the transfer stations. They will pay for disposal at that time. However, it is the intention of the Department to develop a system in which the citizens would not have to handle tire disposal directly. There would be some exceptions, but we would like to encourage the tire suppliers in the County to handle tire disposal and merely pass the cost on to the consumer. A surcharge would be added to the tire price and the customer would leave his old tires with the supplier.

4. The price structure will be as follows:

$1.00	Car Tires, ATV, Motorcycles	13", 14" & 15"
	garden tractor, etc.
$2.00	Light Truck Tires	16" & 17"
$9.00	Large Truck Tires

Large off-road construction equipment tires will be twenty cents (.20¢) per pound or the generators of such tires can deal directly with Oxford Tire.

Tires entering the landfill will be in minimum loads of twenty (20) tires.

HAULERS MEETING
SEPTEMBER 20, 1989

NOT APPROVED
J. Morgan
OCT 18 1989

PRESENT: D. Kramer, C. Snider, A. Saylor, C. Shine, M. Allen,
P. Barry, J. Raptis, R. Young, J. Mancuso, G. Gary

GUESTS: Robert Mitrey, Buffalo Office of the DEC

The purpose of the Meeting is to talk about our future in Recycling in Allegany County. We want from the haulers input on where they plan to be by 1990.

Mr. Mitrey informed the group of haulers that there is a crisis in Solid Waste Disposal in New York State. There are more landfills closing every year. In 1966 there were 1600 landfills in NYS compared to 1989 with 263 landfills, of the 263 landfills only 43 have valid permits.

Mr. Mitrey feels the answer to meet the crisis is the Solid Waste Management Plan whereby, waste would be treated as a resource instead of a waste. We must first reduce our waste by reuse or recycling and then landfill what is remaining.

Each hauler will need to be set for recycling by 9/1/92. Municipalities will need a local ordinance set in place enforcing separation of recyclables.

DEC has available to the municipalities the "COMPREHENSIVE RECYCLING ANALYSIS"- a tool for municipalities. Any municipality coming into contact with the County Landfill must have a comprehensive recycling analysis. The County is not to accept waste until they have a C-R-A.

New York State regulates Solid Waste and Municipalities handle it.

The County could be the planner for the Towns included in that County. The County needs a service agreement and 12 months from that agreement there must be a Comprehensive Recycling Analysis in place.

Waste reduction needs to start at the point of generation by
1. Recycling
2. composting

There is a bureau in Albany that looks at the markets for the waste. Once they get going they will get the information out on the markets in Buffalo or Rochester. They hope to have a guide book for what the market is and price for the market out in the coming months.

Mr. Young asked haulers if they want to use our containers or come up with their own? We must get together to talk about what we can do.

The County would like to phase into it slowly, before 1992.

Fees will be adopted - when we work with the haulers: If the need is there we could use a different type of dumpster for haulers.

Questions and Answers:

Q : Will the County be considered the municipality?

A : For the purpose of the Solid Waste Management Plan, Yes.

Q : Wouldn't it be to the Counties advantage to send a truck to each Municipality to Pickup a certain time each month?

A : The County does not want to mandate what each Municipality does.

Mr. Mitrey mentioned there will have to be an ordinance by municipalities for mandatory source separation.

Patton's of Railroad Valley Recycling - would let haulers know markets and market value.

Mr. Mitrey said the State is looking for a decrease by 1997.

Q : What consideration is being given to a C & D landfill?

A : A separate landfill is needed for C & D to protect groundwater. Allegany County is looking into a C & D Landfill. (Young)

Mr. Young asked what the idea of forming a Solid Waste Management Board meant to the crowd. This would enable the haulers to give more insight for all of the haulers needs.

Ms. Gary handed out a draft of the beginning Solid Waste Management Plan.

The DEC would be glad to come down and get a composting program going.

Q : would they rather municipalities do it or would the County do it?

A : Mr. Mitrey said it is better that the community do it because of transportation.

Q : Is the County concerned at all with the unstable conditions of the incinerator?

A: Mr. Mitrey said the the incinerator needs to make a decision if they will update or phase out.

Q : If a village wanted to go mandatory source separation before the County, could they?

A : Yes - certainly

Q : Who will be required to have the plan?

A : You as a private hauler will have a plan. (Young)

He has checked with D.O.T. for use of generic design. E & M Engineering will do the workup for $6,000, this would cover wooden structures, abutments, beams, etc.. two more bridges to do this year.
Access Road coming along fine seeding on lower side

- 10 Mr. Mancuso said he felt the meeting of September 20, 1989 for haulers went well. As far as the Solid Waste Management Plan goes he feels the haulers are looking to the County for direction. Hunt Engineers gave an estimate of $92,000 to write the plan but Mr. Mancuso feels we could do it in house once the County Planner is on staff. Mr. Mancuso said he would like to start a Board and he feels it would be an excellent forum to start work on the Plan.
Motion by Mr. Saylor to write the Solid Waste Management Plan in house; seconded by Mr. Allen. Carried.
- 11 Mr. Mancuso said that by oversight the quarterly report to the DEC office in Buffalo was late this last quarter but the future reports will be on time. There is also a problem with mailings to them on waste disposal permits. The most recent being the Town of Independence mailed on June 2, 1989. The DEC office says they have never received the information.
The Committee decided all correspondence should be sent Certified to the DEC office.
- 12 Mr. Mancuso informed the Committee that the operating permit for the Landfill was submitted before the deadline.
- 13 Mr. Mancuso told Committee that steps were being taken to comply with the State Building Codes that were in violation after Mr. George Stark made an inspection of the Transfer Stations and the Landfill. Also, the new heating system at the landfill will be in a separate building from the main building and Lancaster Tanks was notified of the bid award for the fuel system at the Landfill, we want to start construction this fall.
- 14 The modification of Cell 3 at the Landfill was completed last week. Mr. Mancuso pointed out that the liner work can not be completed if temperatures are below 40 degrees. We need to talk with SLC to see if the contractor can wait until Spring, 1990 to finish the work. Mr. Mancuso will set up a meeting with SLC to go over the contract and see if work can be finished in the spring.

2 Linda Kinney and Tim Patton of Railroad Valley spoke to Committee about problems with contamination in recycled items. Also, the use of the Landfill by Railroad Valley is limited to one time a month at the present. They would like to see this changed because the by-product waste has risen in the past few months
Mr. Saylor doesn't feel that waste from other Counties should be put in our landfill. Railroad Valley feels that as tax payers and a business that employees people in Allegany County they should be allowed to use the landfill just as other businesses such as Friendship
Dairies use it.
The Committee decided that there needs to be a source separation law for industry and businesses set up as soon as possible.

address the subject with the County Attorneys on the use of the Landfill by Railroad Valley and get back to them within the next couple weeks.

Consultants/Contractors Inc., Lockport, N.Y. will be terminated with the secondary liner after 12 inches of gravel has been placed on the secondary liner. SLC has no problem with coming in the spring to finish. The Committee would like the agreement in writing.

- 4 Ms. Gary handed out to the Committee a quarterly report on the Resource reuse and Recovery Program. She told Committee that the County has one more year to use the funds with $16,000 more coming in this year.

Mr. Allen asked where are we with the recycling law? The Committee would like to get going on it. Mr. Young suggested the Public Works Office could come up with a draft law and go over it at the next meeting. Mr. Kramer thinks the haulers are looking for us to implement the law. Committee decided they would like Ms. Gary and Mr. Mancuso to work on it.

- 6 Mr. Young and Mr. Roeske presented the preliminary cost estimate for the South Main St. Bridge in Wellsville. Mr. Roeske passed out a sheet showing the County's cost of the bridge. CUBA BRANCH
OF CONCERNED CITIZENS OF ALLEGANY COUNTY
DECEMBER 1989

The purposes of our organization as stated in the constitution of formation are:

- To promote the reduction , re-use, and recycling of waste in our environment.
- To actively work toward the banning of waste incineration.

To these ends and to formally state our current position concerning present waste disposal operations in Allegany County we have formulated the following recommendations:

The Cuba Incinerator should be closed immediately.

As long as the incinerator is in operation, Allegany Co. should:

1. not use the the Cuba Incinerator.
2. charge landfill fees appropriate for hazardous waste for the landfilling of ash from the incinerator.
3. ban the burning of recyclable materials.
4. request that the DEC enforce the incinerator's operating permit which allows only burnable refuse.
5. receive compensation for the fuel Allegany Co. supplies to the incinerator, which helps make the steam sold by the incinerator.

As regards to the future management of solid waste, Allegany Co. should:

6. ban private landfills and incinerators to insure solid waste management will be under public control.

7. pay for solid waste disposal from collection, sorting and landfilling fees.

8. charge premium fees for any out of county users of the county landfill.

9. consult lawyers and engineers in the formulation of a comprehensive long range solid waste management plan.

10. create a solid waste management committee with citizen input.

As regards to waste reduction, re-use, and recycling, Allegany Co. should:

11. mandate recycling.
12. educate the public.
13. create sorting facilities at the transfer stations. Free disposal at the transfer station of unsorted refuse should not be allowed.
14. mandate the use of recycled paper.
15. ban disposable plastics.
16. help create markets for recycled materials.
17. help create the establishment of compost sites and storage sites for re-usables throughout the county.

The Cuba Incinerator should be closed immediately.

It poses a threat to public health by the air pollution and food chain contamination it causes.

It poses a threat to public welfare by being incompatible with the recycling effort and by causing a decline in property values for residences located near the incinerator.

Most communities do not see incineration as a workable option for solid waste disposal as evidenced by the recent cancellation of many planned municipal incinerators because of concerns about pollution and cost.

As long as the incinerator is in operation, Allegheny Co. should:

1. not use the the Cuba Incinerator.

The threat to public health and welfare is greatest for people near and down wind of the incinerator (the citizens of Allegheny Co.). The incinerator does emit dangerous air pollution as evidenced by the DEC's own test data. The DEC will not allow incinerators like the Cuba Incinerator to be built, another admission of the potential health hazard associated with the burning of refuse. New incinerators must have pollution control devices installed.

Soon the Cuba Incinerator will be required to adhere to new retrofit regulations for existing incinerators. These new regulations will cost money to implement, money which will probably not be available. The DEC will then probably extend the time period for the implementation of these regulations allowing the incinerator to continue polluting Allegheny Co.

Allegheny Co. should not be contributing to the pollution of its own citizenry. Allegheny Co. should not be subsidizing the incinerator by supplying it with fuel and paying a fee for disposal there.

2. charge landfill fees appropriate for hazardous waste for the landfilling of ash from the incinerator.

An incinerator in Warren County, New Jersey is paying around $100 a ton to dispose of ash because it is classified as hazardous waste and has to be shipped to CID near Buffalo. Presently the DEC has a "special" classification for incinerator ash, but presumably that could change. What is hazardous waste in New Jersey doesn't suddenly become benign upon crossing the state line. The deposition of incinerator ash in the Allegheny County landfill should carry with it an appropriate fee.

The possibility exists that at some time in the future the DEC could require the clean-up of the ash dumped in the landfill if incinerator ash is deemed to be hazardous. The State of New York this year filed suit against Allied Signal Corp. in Syracuse for polluting Lake Onondaga and ordered the company to pay for the clean up! even though the company had always complied with existing DEC regulations.

Environmental Conservation Commissioner Thomas Jorling said the DEC's renewal of permits was not enough of a defense. "None of us escapes some responsibility for the legacy of the past," he said. (This appeared in the Olean Times Herald, Wed., June 28, 1989, p.8.)

Allegheny County is taking title to material that is classified as hazardous by other states.

Adequate substantial compensation is necessary for the huge risk the county is taking by landfilling this material.

3. ban the burning of recyclable materials.

As long as materials that can be recycled are allowed to be burned, attempts at recycling will be slowed. Burning these materials reduces the supply and prolongs the attainment of the economies of scale necessary to achieve self sufficiency for the recycling program.

4. request that the DEC enforce the incinerator's operating permit which allows only burnable refuse.

A visit to the incinerator will show that much of the refuse that goes to the incinerator is of a non-burnable nature. You will see pieces of metal and other objects in the ash. The operating permit (360 regulations) the DEC has issued to the incinerator specifically states that only burnable refuse be put into the incinerator.

Officials in Cattaraugus County have stated that "everything that is put out to the street" in Olean is sent to the Cuba Incinerator. The operating permit for incinerators requires that only burnables be placed in the incinerator to assure as complete a burn as possible, but the operators of the incinerator are in blatant violation of their operating permit since the refuse from Olean is not being sorted.

Inclusion of non-burnable material presumably adversely effects the operation of the incinerator creating an even worse pollution problem. Certainly household toxic substances are finding there way to the incinerator (batteries, paint etc.) when the refuse is not sorted. These substances contribute to the toxins being emitted by the incinerator.

5. receive compensation for the fuel Allegany Co. supplies to the incinerator, which helps make the steam sold by the incinerator.

Last year Cattaraugus County received $470,000 in revenue from steam sales.

Allegany Co. now pays Cattaraugus County $51.75 per ton to take refuse to the incinerator. Cattaraugus County receives fuel and payment, and even further compensation from the sale of the steam produced by the burning of that fuel.

If Allegany County provides about a third of the refuse for the incinerator, 15,600 tons were taken to the incinerator last year from Allegany Co. at a cost of $807,300. (These estimates are based on figures of the average amount of MSW received by the incinerator, and the assumption that Allegany Co. supplied a third.)

Using this fuel Cattaraugus County realized a revenue of $157,000 (a third of $470,000).

Total revenue for Cattaraugus County was $964,300.

For the same time period Allegany County received 15,324 tons of ash being paid $42 per ton for a total of $643,608.

As previously stated this ash is also a potential liability should its classification change.

$($964,300 - $643,608 = $320,692)$

In actuality Allegany County received many more tons of excrement from the incinerator as tons of fly ash and other pollutants have been spread over the county from the stack emissions. Allegany Co. must share the responsibility for the hazard this creates for its own citizenry. If continued exposure to pollution from the Cuba Incinerator leads to documented health problems and lawsuits, Allegheny County will share liability as an assenting party to the use of the incinerator.

As regards to the future management of solid waste, Allegheny Co. should:

6. ban private landfills and incinerators to insure solid waste management will be under public control.

Private landfills and incinerators, to make money, will import any and all refuse. CID currently accepts hazardous waste from out of state. If the CID site ever requires a clean-up in the future due to changes in the environmental laws, the company will simply go bankrupt and taxpayers will foot the bill.

Private landfills should be banned in Allegheny County because of the potential for damage to the health and welfare of the people of Allegheny County.

7. pay for solid waste disposal from collection, sorting and landfilling fees.

Studies have consistently shown that the amount of throwaway material from typical families can easily be cut in HALF, if incentives to do so exist. Some of what was previously thrown out can be avoided by applying smarter buying habits. (Goods in reusable or recyclable containers are purchased instead of goods in throw away packaging.) A further reduction in the amount of refuse thrown out results from the use of compost piles and garbage disposals. Careful sorting of the remaining trash to remove any additional recyclable materials (newspapers, cardboard, etc.) results in the amount of throwaway refuse being half of its previous amount.

If there is no incentive to do this it won't happen.

Most people in Allegheny County have no incentive to recycle or reduce the amount of waste they produce because they don't really pay for their wasteful habits. Local governments subsidize garbage collection; the cost is buried in local tax bills or citizens pay a flat fee regardless of how much trash they generate.

One proposal would be for the free disposal of 1 standard container of refuse per household with any beyond that requiring a per unit fee for collection and disposal in the county landfill.

8. charge premium fees for any out of county users of the county landfill.

The Allegheny County Legislature, having had the foresight to create the landfill, should properly use it to fund its municipal solid waste program.

Landfill fees should be a major source of funding.

Allegheny Co. is providing an extremely valuable service for everyone who uses the landfill and should be adequately compensated for this service.

9. consult lawyers and engineers in the formulation of a comprehensive long range solid waste management plan.

As previously mentioned, Allied Signal was liable for its activities even though those activities adhered to the letter of the existing law. To insure the continued propriety of decisions concerning the management of MSW in Allegheny County consultants should review any proposed plan or changes to an existing procedure prior to its implementation.

10. create a solid waste management committee with citizen input.

There exists at this time a large body of knowledgeable people who reside in the county and have expressed an interest in the manner in which waste is transported and disposed. Many of these people are associated with the Concerned Citizens group and have put forth many useful suggestions in regards to recycling and other waste management techniques. Consequently there is a storehouse of untapped knowledge which could be put to use provided a mechanism for their input is established.

As regards to waste reduction, re-use, and recycling, Allegany Co. should:

11. mandate recycling.

In a recent national poll:

Solid majorities said they "strongly favor" federal action to mandate recycling. (Olean Times Herald, Sunday, Oct. 29, 1989, p.7E)

Anything that can be recycled should be recycled, and it should be mandatory.

People are concerned enough to accept change, to be inconvenienced and, to pay fees if necessary to stop the deterioration of the quality of life.

Thirty states are implementing laws to separate trash for recycling; 10 states have mandatory separation.

The supply of recyclable materials must be substantial and dependable before buyers will contract with recyclers. Mandating recycling will help provide the reliable adequate supply required for the economic viability of private recycling firms.

12. educate the public.

The problem is lack of education. People have to start caring. New programs will be more readily accepted if the advantages are adequately presented to the people of Allegany County. Resistance to changes usually exists only as long as people are unsure of what is required and unaware of the benefits.

Educational advertisements in newspapers, the pennysaver, swap sheets etc. should be utilized as well as educational programs in the schools.

The sale and distribution of standard containers for refuse can serve as a mechanism for helping to spread the required information. Packets of information should be attached to the standard containers.

13. create sorting facilities at the transfer stations. Free disposal at the transfer station of unsorted refuse should not be allowed.

The existing practice of accepting unsorted refuse at the transfer stations should be discontinued since it does not promote the recycling effort.

Any Saturday one can observe county residents literally shoveling whatever they have thrown into the back of their pick-up truck into the "burnable" container destined for the incinerator. Many non-burnable items can be found in the refuse in direct violation of the incinerators operating permit.

The plastics which are thrown out create carcinogens when burned which are spewn all over the county as they are released from the stacks of the incinerator.

Much of the plastic is recyclable and this should not find its way to the incinerator.

A substantial fee should be levied

Containers for:
newspaper
cardboard plastic 3 color glass metal cans

against anyone dumping unsorted refuse at the transfer stations.

In Woodbury, N. J., a fine of up to $500 a day for not sorting trash can be levied. In Hamburg, N. Y., trash pickup is denied to those who don't sort their trash.

14. mandate the use of recycled paper.

Requiring the use of recycled paper in County Government offices and promoting its use elsewhere will help stimulate the demand for recyclable paper and hasten the economic viability of recycling.

"We like to remind AT&T supervisors and executives that their memos and business letters eventually wind up as toilet paper. That should be a sobering thought."
- Burke Stinson, spokesman, AT&T's recycling project.

15. ban disposable plastics.

Suffolk County has banned many plastic throwaway materials and now Erie County is considering similar legislation. Disposable plastics waste oil, over-burden our landfills with non-biodegradable materials that last forever, and pollute our air with carcinogens when burned.

Six states and 31 localities have restricted polystyrene packaging. Allegany County should consider similar legislation.

16. help create markets for recycled materials.

Minnesota dairy farmers are finding that shredded newspapers make great cow bedding. Newspapers have alternative uses as insulation, animal bedding and mulch.

Newspapers could be made available to citizens for mulch and animal bedding.

Economic incentives could be established for the siting of a company within the county for the manufacture of cellulose insulation from newspapers. In addition the economic incentives could be contingent upon the company accepting the larger mission of promoting the use of recyclable materials in other products as well.

Private recycling companies should receive economic incentives from the county until such time they are able to be self-supporting. The costs avoided by sending materials to recyclers instead of to the landfill or the incinerator should be given as subsidies to recyclers as an incentive to continue operations.

If 1 ton of refuse cost $30 to landfill, the private recyclers should receive $30 for every ton of refuse they are able to keep out of the landfill. Recycling must be properly promoted to ensure survival and growth.

Recycling is more desirable than other methods of waste disposal, since other methods can pollute. (The Cuba Incinerator even when operating at optimum is polluting our environment.)

17. help create the establishment of compost sites and storage sites for re-usables throughout the county.

Transportation costs could be reduced by the establishment of strategically placed facilities.

The use of compost piles and the exchange of reusable items and materials by private individuals would be encouraged if facilities were close by.

These locations should also have specific areas designated for the storage of hazardous household waste to remove them from the waste stream.

The Town Board

December 1, 1989

Mr. Richard Young, Superintendent
Allegany County Department of Public Works
Court Street
Belmont, New York 14813

Dear Dick:

Recently a routine inspection of the Andover Dam was completed by the New York State Department of Environmental Conservation Dam Safety Section (copy of letter enclosed). As a result of this inspection the dam is now classified as a "high hazard structure" which will necessitate some type of remediation. The type or extent of remediation has not been determined by the Town Board.

My purpose in this correspondence is to request assistance from you in seeking a solution, cost effective and amicable to all parties, to this problem. I have been in contact with, besides DEC, Conrail (which has an interest due to a "sinking" problem with their tracks in that area.), Congressman Houghtons office, District 5 Legislators, Mr. Raptis office and various civic groups in our community.

Our Town Board will be discussing this matter at our December 12, 9 A.M., meeting. If you are, able and so inclined, your attendance and input would be greatly appreciated.

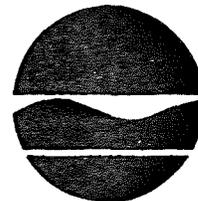

Sincerely yours,

Re: Andover Dam
#38B-1777

Dear Mr. Graves:

I recently made another routine inspection of the reference dam on October 18, 1989. My inspection revealed a continuing deterioration of the entire structure, when compared to observations made during prior inspections. Specifically, the dam exhibits the following:

- 1) Displaced and missing timbers and planking
- 2) Voids due to the loss of rockfill both in the dam itself as well as from both abutments
- 3) Seepage through and/or under the dam
- 4) Trees and brush growing on the right embankment portion

Due to the advanced stage of deterioration, the potential exists for additional structural damage or possibly loss of the spillway itself, if the dam is subjected to sustained high flood flows. This potential becomes even more important when the dam is classified a high hazard structure, which this dam is. A high hazard dam is one whose failure can result in loss of life or serious property damage in the downstream area. Therefore, it is important that remedial measures to repair the dam be undertaken as soon as practicable.

If dam repairs are the selected course of action, I would recommend that more durable materials be used other than wood, as used before. Another alternate that you might consider is taking the dam out of service such that the remaining structure impounds no water.

You should be aware that before any changes or modifications are made to the dam under any option, an Environmental Conservation Law Article 15 permit may be needed. Additional assistance in obtaining the permit is available by contacting the DEC Regional Permit Administrator, Steve Doleski, at Region 9; 600 Delaware Avenue, Buffalo, NY 14202; (716) 847-4551.

Please keep this Office informed of your actions concerning the needed corrective work. If you have any further questions about the above, kindly contact me at (518) 457-5557.

Sincerely,

Walter Lynick
